LEARN ALL ABOUT THE HISTORY OF CASSIS...

BOOK NOW!

HISTORICAL TOUR A STROLL AROUND CASSIS

1hr30 - max. 30 people per guide

This walk will take you from the statue of Calendal to Cassis's little-known narrow streets to discover this typical Provençal village: the harbour, the bourgeois district with its gorgeous houses, the squares and fountains, Saint-Michel church, the communal oven, Villa Ariane... and more. Listen to the stories you'll hear along the way.

GOURMET TOUR THE FOOD-LOVERS' STROLL

1hr30 - max. 30 people per guide

A mix of gourmet food and history... discover this fishing village's narrow streets lined with bourgeois houses, along with its fountains and church. And of course, there's the Provençal produce and specialties that have forged the reputation of its much-loved cuisine. There are several stop-offs along the way to taste the specialties of "Calendal's village".

ARTISTIC TOUR IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF ITS ARTISTS

1hr30 - max. 30 people

Many painters, writers, film-makers and the like have drawn their inspiration from Provence and Cassis. Set out to discover the artists who have thrust Cassis into the limelight through their works: Frédéric Mistral, the very British Virginia Woolf... Without forgetting the film-makers, including Marcel Pagnol and Louis de Funès.

CASSIS SECRETS

MES CALANQUES

PROVENCE IN 3 ACTS!

Marseille, with over 2,600 years of history – so unique and so distinctive – today this city is not to be missed if the international press is to be believed! It benefits from a fresh outlook and a wave of creativity since its year as European Capital of Culture in 2013;

Aix-en-Provence, a city synonymous with water and heritage, is the very essence of Provençal culture, with its architecture, atmosphere, museums and gastronomy, including its trademark Calisson confectionery;

Cassis, the little town that has nothing to envy the cities, with its calanques and the nearby vineyards, is renowned for its art of living and colourful charm that draws you into its narrow streets and to stroll around harbour without a care in the world.

What would you say to a three-part immersion in this perfect blend of Provence?

GENERAL TERMS OF SALE

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1-1 In accordance with the Law of 22 July 2009, local tourism organisations which receive support from the state, local authorities or groups of local authorities can organise or sell, or support, in the general interest, the organisation or sale of trips or stays for individuals or groups, services which can be provided in connection with trips or stays, including the issue of transport tickets, the reservation of rooms at hotels or in tourist accommodation and the issue of accommodation or food vouchers, tourism services, including the organisation of visits to museums or historic monuments, tourism packages, and the organisation and hosting of fairs, trade fairs and conferences or related events provided that these operations include all or some of the aforementioned services, where they facilitate reception or improve the holiday experience of tourists within their geographical area of intervention. Tourist Offices are local tourism organisations that are available to assist service providers and have entered into an agency agreement with them.

1-2 These general terms of sale are valid from 1st March 2010 and shall be applicable except where agreed otherwise.

FORMATION OF THE CONTRACT

2-1 By ordering one or more services offered by the Tourist Office, the customer agrees unrestrictedly and unreservedly to be bound by these general terms of sale, which are visible and can be consulted at the counter of the Tourist Office, in appendix to this booking contract, or on the pages of the website <https://www.ot-cassis.com/conditions-generales-de-vente-groupes.html>

2-2 Bookings: All bookings shall be firm and final unless cancelled as specified in article 8 of these general terms of sale.

PRICES

3-1 Prices shall be quoted in euros, inclusive of VAT. Additional local taxes payable locally may be charged by the local authorities (tourist tax, visitors' tax, etc.) and shall be payable by the customer.

3-2 Payment: For bookings of "tourist activities, services and packages" packaged products, 30% of the total value of the selected services will be payable at the time of booking and the balance will be payable 30 days before the services commence. For bookings of an individual "activity or service" product, the total price of the selected service will be payable at the time of booking. The down payment must be made 15 days at the latest after reception of the booking contract, after that deadline the booking will be considered to be null and void.

Any dossier validated by a purchase order engages the customer. No down payment is made but in the case of total cancellation by the customer, the cancellation fees such as stipulated in article 8-2 will apply.

If the customer has taken out insurance against cancellation, the provisions of the insurance contract that cover refunds should be consulted.

If the customer has not taken out insurance against cancellation, in the event of total or partial cancellation by the customer, the Tourist Office will automatically charge the customer penalties as detailed below:
